

Before you start the process, check to see if you have any holds on your record that will stop you from enrolling. Go to TigerNet. Under "Students" click "Login." Look at the bottom of the page for a red light and "You currently have holds..." This means you have holds.

- If you have holds...
 - Contact Business Services about the Business Office hold.
 - Contact Student Records about all other holds.
- If you do not have holds, proceed with the following steps to enroll for Fall 2007.

1 – ADVISING

- Meet with your academic advisor to make a schedule.

2 - REGISTER

1. Go to the CU homepage on the Internet and click on TigerNet (gray horizontal menu bar, top left)
2. On the TigerNet main page, click the "Register" button.
3. Login with your ID and PIN.
4. Enter or update the various pieces of information requested.
5. Click "Submit." (You will be returned to the TigerNet main page.)

3 - SCHEDULE

1. Go to the TigerNet main page and click the "Schedule" button.
2. Login with your ID and PIN.
3. Click on Course Search (maroon vertical menu bar, left)
4. Enter the 5-digit Web Registration number for the first course in the black Fast Search bar's window.
5. Under the course's title, click the blue "Add this class" link.
6. After the first course, the Payment Agreement will appear. Read it and click "I agree" to continue scheduling.
7. Repeat steps 3 through 5 to enter the rest of your courses.
8. Click "Logout" when you are finished (top right) OR
9. Print a copy of your schedule. Click "Reformat as printable" at the bottom of the page. When the new window opens, click the printer icon (top right). Click "Logout" when you are finished.
